

EJECTION REPORT

DATE: 25th March 2021

OPERATOR: Royal Navy

AIRCRAFT TYPE: Hawk T1A

SEAT TYPE: 10B

ALTITUDE: Low level

SPEED: Not known

ATTITUDE: Not known

DETAILS OF INCIDENT

The Royal Navy Hawk T1A of 736 NAS Royal Navy crashed near St. Martin, 5 miles south south-east of Helston, Cornwall after a suspected engine power loss. Both pilots ejected safely and were airlifted to Derriford hospital in Plymouth for checks and treatment.

