The Afghan Air Force A-29 was one of three A-29s attempting to escape Afghanistan because of the Taliban takeover. Three aircraft entered Uzbekistan airspace and requested permission to land. Two Uzbekistan Mig-29s were scrambled to intercept the Afghan aircraft. At some point a mid-air collision occurred between a Mig-29 and one of the A-29s resulting in all crew members ejecting. The A-29 crew ejected successfully and were picked up immediately.
